✓ denotes a category where a disease or product is included in the survey.
 Restricted denotes a category where only some investments are eligible.

- <sup>1</sup> On-demand: methods that require action at the time of intercourse or pericoitally for efficacy (e.g. emergency contraception)
- <sup>2</sup> Short-acting: methods that work for < 1 year but do not require action at the time of intercourse (e.g. injectable hormones)
- <sup>3</sup> LARC: long-acting reversible contraceptives that work for ≥ 1 year (e.g. implants; IUDs)
- <sup>4</sup> Permanent: irreversible methods
- <sup>5</sup> Includes both diagnostics for HPV infection and diagnostics for cervical lesions
- <sup>6</sup> Includes devices that either clear HPV infection or treat cervical lesions
- <sup>7</sup> Multiple STIs: two or more STIs, including but not limited to chlamydia, gonorrhoea, syphilis, and HIV
- <sup>8</sup> Includes therapeutic drugs for the treatment of two or more STIs. Preventive drugs that address two or more STIs are captured under the MPT section (MPTs > drugs)
- <sup>9</sup> Microbicides for the treatment of two or more STIs are in scope, but are captured under the MPT section as microbicides
- <sup>10</sup> Other STIs: STIs that disproportionately affect populations in LMICs, including but not limited to trichomoniasis, chancroid, Mycoplasma genitalium, lymphogranuloma venereum, and granuloma inguinale (donovanosis)
- <sup>11</sup> The G-FINDER project covers three global health areas: neglected diseases, emerging infectious diseases, and sexual & reproductive health issues. Please note HIV, Hepatitis B, and general diagnostic platforms & multi-disease diagnostics (except for multiple STIs) are captured through the G-FINDER neglected disease survey.

The G-FINDER project also tracks R&D for neglected diseases \(NDs\) and emerging infectious diseases \(EIDs\). Some sexual and reproductive health issues, products and technologies may overlap with the scope of these other global health areas.
